MARQUETTE- Don Jousma, 6610, Euttrick, Alto, Mi. 49302

ZEEHLAND- Bob Jousma, 8668 Eastern Ave., Byron Center, Mi. 49315

There will be six weeks for you guys to get to know each other a bit better. The spring 1981 moves will be due 25-5-73.

A bit about some of these guys. First Bob, and Don Jousma are cousins that live within 25 miles of each other. Both of them have NEVER Piff before. Robert Beasecker and John Post are old friends. Paul Wood, Tim Tilsen, and Tom Kistler all know each other. Paul Wood is a top notch etc. Tim is a college student ROTC and minor business illeannings. Tom Kistler is a skinny senior at Ludington Mi., Bob Jousma works at times while his wife sits home painting his Civil War mini's. Don is a School teacher. Robert is a Librarian at OWSO, and John POST is new to me. I hope that all this will give you ideas for press releases etc. There is a $1 prize for the best press.

Anyway go to all guys, etc. and don't let the blood spill on the carpet.

ON THE GRAND VALLEY CAMPS on April 29 there will be Civil War mini's and other goodies. It will take place from Noon or so until later. 202 Huron Hall.

On May 20 in the camps there will be some good old Diplomacy played along with other good stuff. This also will be at OWSO.

If you got the time, we got the games.

Lew Pulsipher will be assigning a Miller # to the Dippy game until then please refer to this game as Mi-I. I would like to note it is the first game of Michigan Dippy to start, thus we beat the 10 and their game out of the blocks.

HARAD (SCHWASS) (ERLEBOLD) (HARAD): A Umbar MS A N. Harad

The undersigned believes the A. W. Har is dislodged and retreats to F. Har. The date of the fall moves is FRIDAY 4-5-73

Press: POSAICK (STENCH) Prof Entwistle watches in amazement as the tall, dark, hairy creature, deep in the woods. As it approaches Entwistle is filled with terror with each step that the creature takes. At the distance it did not look too big, but as it approached, he could see that it was taking on giant proportions, much like his wife.

It was but 200 feet from him now and he could see that the creature was really big. As tall as the trees all around him, this creature stopped in front of Entwistle. He looks down at the Prof and lets out a cry..." WHAT the hell did you wake me up for.!!!???"

"I didn't realize it at the time when I blew the horn, uhhhhh, but I'm sorry...what can I say?" Entwistle was shaking in his boots.

"There is no reason to explain to me, eh Harter," said the creature. "I'm yours to command, I'm a gaint Woodie from the great forest of Debot. Command me and I shall do."

Woodie was a jump of events that Hutchinsle never even thought of, he was in complete command of his surroundings for the first time in his life. Not only that, but he would not have to walk anywhere from now on. "Woodie, please pick me up..."

From the backside the great soup of KILLINGHAM comes forth from the sea.

If you like other wargames , maybe Forced March, or Swabbers might be for you. Forced March has an opening in Strat I WWI, and other games for multi-commanders. Swabbers has a Jutland Tourney open with $10 first prize, and deals with
